

Global Domains International (GDI) 2023 Income Disclosure Statement

At Global Domains International (GDI), we believe in the power of transparency. Our goal is to provide you with clear insights into the potential earnings associated with our affiliate program, helping you to form realistic expectations for your involvement with us.

Understanding Your Earnings Potential:

The experience of each GDI affiliate is distinct, shaped by personal effort, dedication, and the application of effective strategies. It's important to highlight that earnings are not guaranteed. Achieving measurable success within our program depends on your engagement and commitment.

Earnings Breakdown by Service Package:

- Basic Service Package: For affiliates subscribed to our basic domain and hosting service at $10.00 USD per month, the average income in 2023 was $182.00, with a median income of $101.00.
- Premium Service Package: Affiliates who opted for our Premium service package, with an additional cost of $40.00 USD per month, saw an average income of $979.00 and a median income of $925.00 in 2023.

Service Package Costs:

Participation in GDI requires an investment in our service packages. While a significant upfront investment isn't required, enrolling in our monthly website package is essential. The basic domain and hosting service package is offered at $10.00 USD per month for each registered domain. Our Premium package, providing additional features and benefits, incurs an extra charge of $40.00 USD per month.

No Income Guarantees:

We must emphasize that GDI does not offer guarantees regarding the income you can earn. The figures for average and median incomes for 2023 serve as examples based on past performance and should not be seen as promises of future earnings.
